Mr. McKee is employed as a baggagemaster on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. News of his cousin's death was road. News of his cousin's death was telegraphed to him by the police of this city vesterday and he came immediately better the control of the country of the country to the country of th city yesterday, and he came immediately to Washington.

Mr. McKee said he had not seen his late cousin for eighteen months. He was much surprised at the young man's ac tion, and could not account for it. When asked concerning the telegram found in the suicide's room regarding the killing of the dead man's brother, Harry McKee in Chicago, last your, Mr. McKee said there was no truth in the report. The suicide's brother, he said, was still alive and living in Chicago.

"In fact," Mr. McKee continued. "we shall not make the arrangements for Frank's funeral until we hear from Har-The latter is employed as a yardmaster in Chicago, and I think he be in this city by 11 o'clock tonight.'

Search Through Trunks. The cousin made a thorough search through the dead man's trunks, assisted by Morguemaster Schoneberger, for the purpose of finding what he had done with his money. Mr. McKee said he could not believe that his cousin had squandered all his cash, as he had regarded him as a thrifty young man. Harry McKee, the brother of the dead man, has been a railroad man all his life and was formerly stationed in Balti-He was transferred about a year age to Bellaire Ohio, where he and his family reside. He was later sent to Chi-cago, although his family are still at Bellaire.

Was a Church Member.

Some little difficulty is expected by the family regarding the funeral services, as it is not known whether the suicide was an attendant of the Catholic Church, to which belief he was raised It is claimed, however, that the suicide was a church member and attended St Aloysius, at North Capitol and I Streets northwest.

The deceased was an arphan from all

The deceased was an apphan from all that can be learned. John McKee will be in Washington several days settling his late cousin's affairs.

Every possible effort will be made by the relatives to find out whether the suicide left any funds from the estate which he received from his father about a year ago. It is said he was a depositor in two well-known banks in this city also in a banking association. All city, also in a banking association. All three institutions will be called upon by John McKee, who says he does not believe his cousin was penniless. He will assisted by Detective Sergeants Horne and Hartigan, who have be put on the case by Major Sylvester.

MRS. PULITZER'S SLAYER

Young's Attorney Hopes to Save His Neck.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 .- That insanity will be the plea of Lawyer W. F. S. Hart on behalf of William Hooper Young is no longer doubted by District Attorney Jerome, who is having the prosecution prepared accordingly.

Lawyer Hart may put Young on the witness stand, relying on his manner and the strange story he tells to convince the jury that his mind is unbalanced. The prosecution will be assisted in bringing out every fact connected with the case and rothing except the actual killing of Mrs. Pulitzer will be disputed and that only by the defendant himself.

In the opinion of Lawyer Hart there is no necessity of Young ever facing a jury His idea is that the man should be examined by a jury of alienists and if found insane sent at once to the Mattea wan Asylum. Lawyer Hart says that Young's actions since the killing of Mrs. Pulitzer, the broad trail he foolishly left behind him and the remarkable story he tells of the crime are enough to conviany jury that he is not sound mentally.

The mother of Young has written to Lawyer Hart saying that she does not

Mercury and Potash ONLY SERVE AS A MASH FOR

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

They hide its repulsive form, and this serpent disease, stupefied by these drugs, lies dormant until the effects have worn off or treatment is discontinued, when it have worn off or treatment is discontinued, when it breaks down the mask and becomes as full of life and venom as ever. Mercury and Potash may dry up the sores and eruptions, but at the same exploration through the Grand Canon time they drive the poison back into the blood and system, where it feeds upon the tender tissues, membranes and nerves, finally breaking out in most disgusting sores and even destroying the flesh and bones.

Mercury and Potash cannot accomplish a radical and permanent cure.
They have a palliative but not curative effect upon this treacherous snake-like disease. These drugs produce mercurial Rheumatism, destroy the teeth and corrode the membranes of the stomach and bowels, causing inflammation and dyspepsia, nervousness and general derangement of the system.

S. S. S. is a Specific for Contagious Blood Poison, and the only antidote for the peculiar virus that spreads so quickly throughout the system, corrupting the blood and infecting every organ and fibre of the body.

RICH MAN DIES AFTER LIFE OF SELF-DENIAL

Entire Estate of Lawrence Watson, One of the Largest Land Owners in Illinois, Willed to Catholic Charities.

SYCAMORE, III., Sept. 26 .- Lawrence Watson, the cobbler, poet, recluse scholar and one of the largest land owner in Illinois, is dead. For sixty years he has lived a solitary life in a two-room house on one of his farms with a rough table, hardottomed chair and couch as furniture while his tenants had comfortable homes and his blooded stock were stabled in barns. Although he observed the strictest diet and wore the poorest apparel, he was liberal and kind-hearted. He lived many years in celf-denial, doing penance for a real or fancied wrong. There was a romance in his early life and he blamed himself for its un-fortunate outcome. His entire estate, which was enormous, was willed to Catholic charities. Catholic charities.
